It is the oldest of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, and the only one to remain largely intact. The complex consists of a valley temple, now buried beneath the village of Nazlet el-Samman, Causeway connecting the valley temple to the mortuary temple & the Pyramid structure itself.
- Moving on to Khafre's Pyramid complex consisting of the same elements of the great Pyramid in addition to the Sphinx. The valley temple yielded several statues of King Khafre. Several were found in a very good condition in the the temple by Auguste Mariette in 1860's and now exhibited in the Egyptian Museum in Tahrir.
